

We Are Here4You

A call center resource for Kaiser Permanente employees and physicians

As the COVID-19 crisis unfolds nationwide, we recognize that our employees and physicians are facing significant, unprecedented challenges.

Here4You offers support with immediate needs, including:

Providing childcare support while schools are closed, and caregivers, providers and essential workers continue to report to work.

Reducing the risk of exposing family members through access to hotel space.

Offering financial assistance to help employees with urgent needs due to changes in employment or financial status.

Supplying referrals to the Employee Assistance Program (EAP) and additional resources for mental health and wellness support.

Directing employees to immediate resources to help meet their social needs.
